

SOCIAL DISTANCING

We've got you covered

TENTS | CHAIRS | TABLES | AND MORE...

HOW TO OPEN & BE COMPLIANT

B&B can have you set up in 24 to 48 hours. We have all the products you may need for the next weeks, maybe even months to come. This is not limited to tents and structures. B&B has flooring, sanitizer stations, tables, chairs, linens, lighting, heating and air conditioning and much more. Tents & structures can be left up as long as you need it, if social distancing guidelines are enforced for weeks or months. Our professional workers will anchor your tent and make sure your structure is safe with confidence along with other items rented. Your safety is our main priority as businesses start to reopen.

SOCIAL DISTANCING

TENTS AND SHELTERS WILL PLAY A CRITICAL ROLE AS AMERICA BEGINS TO RE-OPEN.

As we enter the next phase, challenges will be met head on as you try to keep your employees and customers safe. These ideas should help every business with following the social distance guidelines, and being able to make the most out of what can be done with outside spaces. B&B's guide to social distancing will be a great asset for your community in the next few weeks to months. Not only renting tents but equipment as well.

GROCERY STORES

Grocery stores are busier than ever. Give us a call to see if we can provide a solution for you. This could be putting a marquee tent on your sidewalk to cover patrons as they wait in line to enter into your store. It could be a drive through lane for cars arriving for their scheduled grocery pickup and a queue line where workers can organize grocery orders waiting pickup.

RESTAURANTS

There are many different applications for tent solutions when it comes to restaurants. For a fast food restaurant or a place that primarily does takeout, it might be valuable to add a small tent or canopy in the parking lot to cover up employees taking food out to patrons. Adding a Navi-Trac Lite Pavilion is a great way to add coverings to patios and courtyards because it connects directly with the building. If a restaurant doesn't have room for a tent for seating guests, consider adding a small tent right outside the entrance for a hostess table so that you can control the number of individuals entering the building.

BARS, WINERIES & BREWERIES

Local wineries and breweries don't always have very large spaces for tastings. Adding a tent could be a great way for patrons to get together and taste test their favorite beverages. This can also work for restaurants that want to convert their bar area to dining room only to try fitting more patrons into their restaurants while social distancing guidelines are still in place.

BARS, WINERIES & BREWERIES

Adding a bar or cocktail tent right outside of the restaurant might appeal to a business owner that is trying to turn around tables inside faster.

Hopefully the wait to get into an establishment goes quickly, however keeping your customers shielded from the sun and rain will make waiting a little more comfortable. You can use numerous different tents to accommodate what your building would need.

FAST FOOD - TAKEOUT

Encouraging people to use a drive-thru or to-go orders pick up stations will keep your dining area and waiting area less congested and will help you better follow social distancing guidelines. Numerous tents can be utilized for this.

SOCIAL DISTANCING BARRIERS

CAN'T ADD A TENT FOR MORE SEATING? NO PROBLEM!

We have designed window partitions to allow for social distancing, while utilizing the space you have available.

FACTORIES & OFFICES

Large tents in parking lots can be a great solution for manufacturing facilities and large corporations that are headed back to work and need to comply with social distancing guidelines. This can be helpful for businesses that have a need for additional break room space or dining areas, or if they have too many desks that are in close proximity and need more office space.

CHURCHES

There are a few different ways that social distancing measures can be taken when it comes to church services. A large tent could be set up with chairs set up in groups of 5 or 6 to allow for families to sit together and distanced from others according to guidelines. This would likely provide a lot more space for individuals over traditional pew type seating.

Another way church services could be conducted is have a smaller tent or two set up in a parking lot and people can listen to a service much like they would a drive in movie or bring lawn chairs to join in on the service while socially distanced outside.

SCHOOLS & UNIVERSITIES

Fall Semesters might look a lot different in the coming school year. Schools might want to consider tents as temporary classrooms allowing students to spread out over a larger than the typical lecture hall. A possible configuration is 8' conference tables with a chair on each end facing the professor. There is likely to be some type of need for screening tents to get into school events and sporting facilities to ensure the health of the students.

FUNERALS

Not an idea that anyone wants to be a reality; setting up tents for funerals or receptions might be the only way for some to meet social distancing guidelines and say goodbye to their loved ones.

This could simply mean having a funeral reception or luncheon under a tent to ensure there is enough space, or creating a drive thru type scenario to allow for people to say their goodbyes while remaining distanced from others.
